ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Mrs. Lucinda R. Simmons died at East Orange, N. J., Friday. Mrs. Simmons' father, Wheat Beals, of Vermont, built the first railroad known in the United States—the wooden track affair four miles long at the Quincy granite quarries in Massachusetts. Her grandfather was a member of the Boston tea party.

Ruby Seaver, little daughter of E. K. Seaver, of Morrisville, burned one arm in a peculiar manner recently. Suffering from a pain in the arm, she placed an electric bulb against the member under the bed clothing. So much heat generated from the lamp that her clothing caught fire and her arm was scorched considerably.

The trustees of the Vermont Soldiers Home at Bennington have promulgated an order prohibiting any member from working about the village. It has been customary for some of the veterans to sell berries, fish, and other articles, but the privilege, it is said, has been so abused by a certain class that the order became necessary.

Dr. E. R. Campbell, Rockingham's representative in the legislature, and Mrs. Campbell, have invited the members of the Woman's club, with men, and the members of the Rockingham Medical club to be present at a reception this evening at their home and meet Gov. and Mrs. C. J. Bell, who will be in Bellows Falls at the annual meeting of the Vermont State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry.

The ordination of William Crosby of Ludlow and John J. Cullion of Bennington to the priesthood of the Roman Catholic church will take place at Montreal within the next two weeks. It is expected that they will be assigned to parishes in this state. They were ordained deacons a few months ago. Both young men have made their theological courses at the grand seminary at Montreal.

It has been figured out that the cost of the coal for Burlington's departments, outside the school and water departments, which was ordered directly from outside dealers by the city, will cost $6.00 per net ton, which is considerably under the price noted by local dealers. This includes all the labor in connection with unloading and delivering. The amount of coal bought for these departments was about 317 gross tons or 355 net tons.

The condition of Asa H. Hubbard of Whiting, ex-judge of probate of Addison county, whose left arm was cut off by the cars Saturday morning, is favorable.

The analysis of a sample of water from Minard's pond, Bellows Falls, says that the odor of the sample was "decidedly aromatic," and continues: "This specimen shows low water condition of the spring. Evidence of much decayed vegetable matter but no dangerous contamination is present."

W. S. Buckham of Hartland hill, has in his possession an old piece of crockery that once belonged to his great-grandmother. It is a teacup and saucer of small size and perfect condition, not a nick or scratch to be seen upon them, though they must be at least two hundred years old. The color is of a softly shaded blue and white. On the inside of the saucer a hunting scene is pictured, with two hounds in chase of game.

Harold Holbrook, who is in Newfane jail where he is awaiting trial on the charge of burglarizing the Newfane Savings Bank last August, attempted to escape from jail recently. He secured an iron hook and attempted to pry off the grating at the window opening off the corridor. A woman saw his arm through the grating and notified the jail officials, who induced Holbrook to produce the hook by threatening to confine him in a cell. How he obtained the implement is not known.

O. W. Davis of Morrisville, who is something of a specialist in apple raising has recently been exhibiting a frank apple growth. The curiosity is nothing more nor less than two Vermont Greening apples which in the course of development grew so closely that one skin enveloped both, one being several times larger than the other. Two blow ends are plainly visible, but only one stem, and the whole bears a most striking resemblance to a plump, downy chicken, just stepped from the shell.

A Grange was organized at Putney Monday night by Deputy H. N. Sargent, of Brattleboro. There were 74 charter members. Gov. C. J. Bell was present. Brown & Webster, dealers in men's furnishings, goods at Swanton have been obliged to close their store owing to a petition in bankruptcy having been filed by Elmer E. Brown. The liabilities as given in the petition are $12,124.38; assets, $1,789.45; of which $150 are claimed exempt. A meeting of their creditors will be held as soon as possible and a trustee appointed.

New St. Alban's Pastor.

St. Alban's, Dec. 15.—The Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Marggraf will arrive in this city this week from Derby Line and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Watson, of Brown avenue, until the Universalist paragonage on Messenger street is ready for their occupancy. Mr. Marggraf will assume his duties as pastor of the Universalist church next Sunday.

WANTED

Everyone who is interested in the keeping of hens to call at the

for one of those little books, "Chicken Coops and How to Make Money with Poultry."

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Rickert & Wells, Special Agents.

BRATTLEBORO REQUESTS.

Provisions in the Will of Mrs. Martha Ryther, of Barnardston, Mass.

Brattleboro, Dec. 15.—The bequest of $1,000 to the Brattleboro home for the aged and disabled by Mrs. Martha Ryther, of Barnardston, Mass., formerly of Brattleboro, makes a total of over $8,000 that has been given to the home, in addition to a gift of $10,000 made conditional upon provision being made for caring for the donor, which gift was accepted, and used for enlarging the institution. Mrs. Ryther also bequeaths the income of $5,000 to her nephew, Herbert Clark, of Gardner, Mass., formerly of Dunsmuir; $700 to a nephew, J. J. Hildreth, of Brattleboro, who previously had been given $5,000; $500 to the Congregational society of Barnardston; $500 to A. J. Hildreth, of Brattleboro; the income of $1,000 to Mr. and Mrs. Luke J. Bond, of Brattleboro. The two sums of $5,000, mentioned first, and the last sum of $1,000, to go to missions after the death of the persons named as beneficiaries as to the income.

Repairing the Damage.

Brattleboro, Dec. 14.—The water department was engaged last night and today until noon in repairing the break in the water main at the corner of Main street and Winslow avenue. The cellar has been drained of water but the basement of F. E. Perkins' store which was flooded to a depth of five feet was also found to contain a great quantity of earth which washed in from the street. It was necessary to shovel out a dozen cartloads before the cellar bottom was reached. The damage to the stock stored there is found to be fully as large as anticipated. The earth for several yards from the break in the water main was washed out, leaving just that on the surface which was frozen.

An Authority on Poultry Foods

The successful manager of a large stock farm ought to know his business and should be relied upon as an authority on Stock Foods. Lyman Plam, the proprietor of the Hillside Farm, Greenville, Me., has the following to say about "Fog's Perfected Poultry Food": "It is with pleasure that I recommend your Perfected Poultry Food. I have met with good success in its use in my poultry department."
